CHINA MAIL.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 30, 1869.

on with Mr. Deane's crushing the misstatements of the of the Anglo-American Munich at Shanghai, we have in possession of a report he was change for the better taken place in the records of
1. robbery in Chinese waters In that year 34 persons killed resulting in the murder 1866 saw no less than the "George Andreas," "Hall
"Henry Darling," being the the foreign vessels plundered, murders are reported as attend-these outrages. The year 1866 a decrease in the number to 25 high from four foreign vessels killed—the "Chin Chin," "Mary aventure," and "Lubra" is collected by residents as the able in this way. Twenty-a took place in 1867, and 1868, the "Lemona" being the vessel attacked, while this months of which have already as witnessed only five. It be urged in the face of this our Colonial legislation has ative, or our naval forces wards the suppression of crimes held in detestation alike by mankind; and it is further that the returns prior to are very probably deficient, as date reports of piracy were Harbour Master or Registrar of Magistrates, besides being the office of the Superintendent.
The figures given there-only those on record in his unt probably, says Mr. Deane, the real number of pirates the Colony previous to that some of our readers may established the cases reported part of 1866, and they a month, or several, two so that Mr. Deane's estimate not the true number.

much importance that the shown should be borne in upon whom it will devolve modifications in the exist-on bearing upon this subject has been or will be named to consider how far Harbour, and Coastal Ordin-be relaxed so as to press less the honest trader, while not induce facilities to pirates and strangers to India. The consideration, but that those who are so inclined the removal of existing that the smallest facility will vantage of, by the practically assume the occupation which able, has now nearly ceased station at least is whether any be devised which will not meet junks while preventing from again becoming the of sea rovers. In native official opinion every junk is, when occasion offers, a pirate.

While some minor restrictions might advantageously be removed, it is very questionable whether any radical change could be inaugurated which would not do more harm than good. We speak in ignorance of any recommendations already made, or yet to be made. But we know that a large portion of the mercantile community avow their preference for the old regime because "trade was brisker." Of course to such an argument there is no reply. If because it fills their pockets especially the pockets of those who deal in arms, ammunition, and ship's stores, they would prefer to see piracy unchecked, we can only say that morality and our view of the best interests of the Colony, and of the future trade with China, forbid us to endorse their opinion. We can only hope that extreme counsels will not prevail to the detriment of both the native and foreign trade and yet more important of our national character.

FEARFUL COLLATERAL ACCIDENT IN SAXONY.

(From a correspondent of the Times.)

Dresden, Aug. 5.

Early on Monday morning last intelligence was received here that at a short distance from this city upwards of 400 men had fallen victims to a terrific colliery accident. At first it was hoped the number was considerably in excess of 200, but it is now nearly certain that the figures will prove even greater, 420 or more being absent from the roll-call on Tuesday.
